

FUND DESCRIPTION*Asset Class

Global Stock

Investment Category

Specialty – Real Estate

Objective

Total return through a combination of current income and long-term capital appreciation

Strategy

The Investment Team's strategy combines bottom-up research, which includes quantitative and qualitative investment criteria, with top-down macro-economic research (i.e., analyzing local, regional, and country-related market conditions and real estate fundamentals). The Team employs a relative valuation process in which both intrinsic value and net asset value calculation results are analyzed in relation to current securities market prices.

The performance information shown represents past performance and is not a guarantee of future results. The investment return and principal value of your investment will fluctuate so that your shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance information shown. You may obtain performance information current to the most recent month-end by visiting riversource.com/investments.

*Fund expense ratios are calculated based on the Fund's average net assets during the Fund's most recently completed fiscal year, adjusted for the change in the Fund's transfer agent, and have not been adjusted for current asset levels, including any decrease in assets, which, if adjusted, would result in expense ratios higher than are expressed herein. Any fee waivers/expense caps would limit the impact that any decrease in assets will have on net expense ratios in the current fiscal year.

**RiverSource Investments and its affiliates have contractually agreed to waive certain fees and to absorb certain expenses until April 30, 2010, unless sooner terminated at the discretion of the Fund's Board. Any amounts waived will not be reimbursed by the Fund. Under this agreement, net fund operating expenses will not exceed 1.64% for Class A and 2.39% for Class C shares.

DEFINITIONS

Alpha- measures the relationship between the fund's performance and its beta over a three-year period. Alpha greater than 0.0 means an investment has performed better than the compared index given its level of risk. It can be viewed as a measure of the value added by the fund manager.

Beta- measures an investment's volatility relative to a market index. The index is equivalent to 1.0. An investment with a beta greater than 1.0 has been more volatile than the index while an investment with a beta less than 1.0 has been less volatile.

Price-to-Book Ratio- is a stock's price divided by its book value, and may help determine if it is valued fairly.

Price-to-Earnings Ratio- is a stock's price divided by after-tax earnings over a trailing 12-month period, which serves as an indicator of value based on earnings.

R-Squared- measures how closely a fund's performance matches (or doesn't match) the performance of its benchmark index.

Sharpe Ratio- divides an investment's return in excess of the 90-day Treasury bill by the investment's standard deviation to measure risk-adjusted performance.

Standard Deviation- measures an investment's historical volatility in performance.

The Seligman LaSalle Global Real Estate Fund is a narrowly focused sector fund and it may exhibit higher volatility than funds with broader investment objectives. Principal risks associated with the Fund include market risk, issuer risk, diversification risk and sector/concentration risk. See the Fund's prospectus for information on these and other risks associated with the Fund.

Investments in small- and mid-capitalization companies involve greater risks and volatility than investments in larger, more established companies.

International investing involves increased risk and volatility due to potential political and economic instability, currency fluctuations, and differences in financial reporting and accounting standards and oversight. Risks are particularly significant in emerging markets.
